CAN TAXPAYERS REMOVE 'GOLD PLATE' FROM SCHOOL BUILDINGS?

Cucamonga Chamber Probes Problem

What can taxpayers do to see that they receive full value for their tax dollar?

Perhaps the answer to that can never be clear-cut; but on the local level Norman Hixson, manager of Cucamonga County Water District and member of Cucamonga District Chamber of Commerce, has advanced the theory that taxpayers can sure as heck try.

His idea?

Establish a committee of taxpaying contractors to scrutinize building plans for school districts and "take the gold - plate out of the specifications."

What brough on this suggestion which Mr. Hixson presented before last week's session of Cucamonga District Chamber of Commerce directors?

The increasing high cost of school buildings — specifically, because Cucamonga School District will be unable to construct its new Los Amigos School as planned.

The trustees were last week forced to throw out seven bids on the project when the lowest bid exceeded the district's maximum allowable by more than $17,000.

"Districts right in this area have gotten good classrooms for $12.50 per sq. ft.," Mr. Hixson informed Cucamonga chamber directors at their Thursday night, July 2 meeting. "Why should other districts have to pay $22.60 per sq. foot?"

Mr. Hixson described low bid received on the Los Amigos School as "fantastic." It totaled $197,340.

"I've got four kids in school," declared Mr. Hixson. "We've got three school districts in the Cucamonga area. I think it's up to us as taxpayers to take a good hard look at this building situation. It's up to us to see we get our tax dollar's worth."

Chamber President Charles Smith, speaking as a member of the Chaffey Union High School District Board of Trustees, said, "I personally would appreciate advice like that. I don't know construction. I can't see why a school board wouldn't welcome such an advisory group of builders."

"I think we should send letters to the three school boards in our area asking if they would welcome such comments and criticism, not only on the buildings themselves, but from the time a school site is contemplated."

Director Eugene Billings noted that some contractors might not be able to serve on such an advisory committee due to submitting bids on the projects themselves.

Mr. Hixson suggested contractors who were local taxpayers be contracted to see if they were willing to sit on such a committee.

"Our first step will be to ask if the school boards desire such advice and help," Mr. Hixson suggested.

The Cucamonga Chamber appointed Mr. Hixson chairman of a committee to confer with Supt. Ralph Bullock of Cucamonga School District on the idea.

PLANNERS BAT 1 FOR 2

City Council Overrules One Appeal, Backs One

Two lengthy public hearings, which packed City Hall council chambers with 50 persons and found Upland City Council overruling the City Planning Commission in one instance and upholding it in another, kept the city fathers humping to wind up a five hour session at 12:30 a.m. after a 7:30 Tuesday, July 7 start.

When the council actually got down to business—approving an $849,688 fiscal budget, the amount of money necessary to be raised by taxation, plus a $276,460 water department budget; confirming filing of assesment on Salina St. improvements; and adopting a Municipal Code—no one was on hand but the city officials and a pair of nodding newspapermen. Lone occupant of a chair in theaudience was Ronald Yielding, administrative aide to City Manager Elwin Alder.

An appeal from planning commission denial of rezoning from 20,000 sq. ft. lots to 15,000 sq. ft. lots on a ten acre parcel west of Euclid Ave. on the north side of 16th St. by Ed Novell of Novell Realty was opposed by 10 area residents and favored by Mr. Novell. Council debate which followed was highlighted by a verbal clash between Jarvis Leman and William Kistinger.

Mr. Leman immediately moved that the planning commission ruling be upheld and the appeal rejected. Mayor Abner Haldeman had to second the motion to get it on the floor.

"From a school standpoint alone," Mr. Leman declared, "we should not downgrade these lots." As president of Upland Elementary School District, Mr. Leman said school problems would be compounded because families in the area would increase 25 per cent. He said the district is plagued by double sessions now.

Mr. Kistinger demanded to know where the 20,000 sq. ft. was to cease. A transitional row of lots breaking down to 15,000 sq. ft. had to come, he he insisted. Why not here?

"It is not incumbent upon this body to help a subdivider to sell his lots," insisted Mr. Leman.

"This will be a benefit to the area in general," retorted Mr. Kistinger. "I'm just more far-sighted than you."

Mr. Leman's motion to uphold the planners was defeated 3-2, John Nicholson, Mr. Kistinger and Philip Holden voting no.

Mr. Holden moved that the requested zone change be granted on the westerly half of Mr. Novell's parcel, but no second was received and even Mr. Novell opposed this. Mr. Holden then moved the discussion be continued until the next council meeting to give Mr. Novell time to draw up plans showing where the break would be best for his development.

Residential opposition won out in Earl O'Cathey's appeal to planners denial of rezoning poultry - rabbit agricultural area on Huntington Dr. bebetween N. Vista and Loma Pl. for his gas burner assembly plant. A charge of "sabotage" was made by Mr. O'Cathey who declared that "bodily harm" had been suggested against some of the residents in that area. But Mr. O'Cathey said he was a firm believer in the 11th Commandment, "love one another," and that if defeated he would not continuethe "feud".

Homer M. Barnhart, lone backer for Mr. O'Cathey, presented the council a lengthy handwritten document which he claimed "explains the whole conspiracy."

A total of 13 area residents opposed the rezoning.

The council followed a Safety Council recommendation that the guard rail at the new post office on C St. be moved back off public property. To protect people from stumbling over it, planting of a hedge was established in front of it. "We might use landing lights," observed Mr. Kistinger.

"Hasn't the post office got contacts to straighten out the parking situation there?" one councilman asked.

"They can't even put out a fire in the Pentagon," said Mr. Leman.

Stadium Cost At Alta Loma Faces Slash

Declaring "we just don't have that kind of money," Chaffey College President Daniel B. Milliken last week presented an engineer's report that Chaffey's football-track stadium on the Alta Loma campus would require $59,415 in basic utilties.

"My estimate was $35,000," Dr. Milliken informed the board.

Curbs and basic utilities for the track was set at at $24,000 by the engineer compared to Dr. Milliken's estimate of $12,000. The rest of the engineer's estimate was for the football field watering and drainage system and electrical conduits for the football field.

"It is doubtful if $30,000 more would put the lights in," Dr. Milliken said when queried by Board President Richard S. Barr about the overall $90,000 estimate on the stadium work.

"It's essential we cut this down," Dr. Milliken said. The only areas that savings could be considered in, he added, were curtailment or elimination of storm drain and a second look at the sprinkler system. Both were listed by the engineer as $13,000 items.

Mr. Barr suggested possibilities of raising the track at one side to eliminate one storm drain or use of a pump-sump drainage system such as is employed on state highway underpasses during storm conditions. Trustee Arvel Smith suggested a border of soil type conducive to drainage on inside edge of the track.

Dr. Milliken said he would confer with the engineer on the suggestions.

Plans on the two - pool college swim stadium were also presented by Dr. Milliken along with the architect's $100,000 estimate. Included is 350 bleacher seats. Dr. Milliken reported there was $128,000 in the district's community services capital outlay.

STUDY ON DUMP SITE CONTINUES

One day before San Bernardino County's option expires on the 147 acre Etiwanda dump site at Rochester Ave. and Base Line west of the prison camp, a report on approximately 10 possible cut-and-cover disposal sites will be presented to the Board of Supervisors.

The board ordered the report to be submitted at 3 p.m. July 14.

At the Tuesday, July 7 session of the board, an opposition committee to purchase of the Etiwanda site presented a list of seven other sites.

The committee is composed of Ontario Mayor Charles R. Latimer, a realtor; R. E. Browne of Ellena Bros. Winery and Abraham Spiegel, of Los Angeles developers Roven and Spiegel.

Andrew J. Crevolin, auto dealer, offered 100 acres on Milliken for a price of $2750 per acre or through lease. The Etiwanda residents indicated opposition to this site.

Board Becomes Pressure Group

District Threatens To 'Take Over Bleachers'

Pressure was placed upon the contractor of field bleachers at Upland High School this week by Chaffey Union High School District, the board of trustees learned during regular session Monday night, July 6.

A registered, special delivery letter was sent declaring that if the project designated as "very slow" by Coordinator of School Expansion, J. Milo Thomas did not speed up, the school district would take over after 14 days if recommended by the architect.

Supt. Allan Smith reported $33,000 had been spent on the job to date with $9200 unexpended. He said no further money would be put out until more progress was shown or the school district took over.

W. Wren Woodward, trustees learned during regular regular session Monday night, July 6.

W. Wren Woodward, trustee from Upland, declared: "We'd like the bleachers to be ready when the football season begins."

The chain link fence job was going according to schedule, Mr. Thomas reported. The paving of walks and courts on the Upland campus was accepted as complete by the trustees.

Awarded contract for the restroom building at Upland High School was Robert Paoluccio of El Monte with low bid of $9250 among seven bids submited. The board was informed the architect's estimate had been $8200 but he felt no better bid would be received if these were thrown out.

Alexander McLeish, who took over position of assistant superintendent with the district July 1, submitted a letter of commendation of the district's maintenance department during his four year tenure as principal of Upland High.

Mr. Woodward moved that a letter of commendation be forwarded to Mark Alexander for his operation of the new high school cafeteria which broke even during a six weeks experimental period.

Mr. Woodward was named chairman of a committee to launch investigation of unification with a possible seminar on the subject slated for early fall.

A probe into possibility of of mileage for school board members was instigated by President Benjamin Allen and tabled until next meeting of the board so that information could be obtained on the subject.

A sealed bid of $16,000 submitted by Robert C. Jensen and Elmer F. Roden of Ontario was accepted on the district's five acres of vacant land located at Sixth St. and Berlyn Ave. Only other bid was from Robert E. Petri of 875 N. Third Ave., Upland, for $15,250. No oral bids were submitted despite great interest expressed in the land prior to the meeting.

Board members surmised that relocation of a 14-in. San Antonio Water Co. line from the property at approximate cost of $2000 "scared off" interested bidders.

The meeting was adjourned to 7 p.m. Thursday, July 16 for review of the district's fiscal budget.

Upland Pilot Loses Life In Crash Dive At County Blaze

The Fourth of July weekend took one Upland life—that of Hemet Valley Flying Service pilot Donald A. Doughty, 40, of 296 Greentree Rd.

He crashed in flaming death while borate-bombing a 450 acre fire in the Crafton Hills Sunday afternoon, July 5.

Mr. Doughty, a sheriff's reserve deputy, was married and the father of three children.

Failing to pull out of a dive, he was killed instantly at 3:18 p.m. Sunday when his single-engine torpedo bomber hit a ridge tail and pancaked with a deafening roar, according to eye-witnesses. Flames shot 20 feet into the air. Debris showered a fire crew of six men who were just missed by the stricken plane. Sixteen other fire fighters scrambled for safety in vicinity of the explosion.

The pilot's body was found 200 yards from where the plane first slammed into the ground. Bringing the body back was the San Gorgonio Search and Rescue Squad.

A veteran of 22 years flying and a former test pilot, the victim is survived by his widow Carolyn; two sons, Charles, 22, and Mike, 3; and a daughter, Barbara Ann, 5. Charles Doughty had worked 14 hours on the fire line Saturday.

The brush fire started about 12:30 p.m. Saturday. Illegal burning in an incinerator was branded cause of the blaze by State Forestry Information Officer Jim L. Johnson.

Deceased was a World War II Navy veteran, born in Whittier. Before coming to Upland in 1945, he lived in Needles and Visalia.

The fire near Yucaipa was reported controlled at 8 p.m. Monday night, July 6. It burned across 685 acres of valuable watershed.

Early investigation of the crash showed no mechanical failure of the plane flown by the crash victim, according to Robert Phelps of the Federal Aviation Agency. He said official findings will be released by the Civil Aeronautics Board when the investigation is completed.

In Upland, the Fourth of July weekend proved safe and sane for drivers in the city limits. All traffic accidents were minor without serious injury.

Two teenage girls were in a car which flipped on Euclid Ave. north of 21st St. Friday afternoon, July 3, but escaped serious injury. They were driver Barbara Fay Mishler, 970 Terrace Dr., 17, and her sister Sandy Jane Mishler, 16. Both were taken to San Antonio Hospital for treatment and the car, which turned turtle in the stormdrain against the west curb, was pronounced a "total".

The driver said her sister swatted at something in the car. When she turned to look, the driver said, she lost control of the auto. A citation was issued for damaging the curb.

LONE SERIOUS traffic accident in Upland city limits over the Fourth of July weekend was this one on Euclid Ave. north of 21st St. Friday afternoon. Escaping with minor injuries were driver Barbara Fay Mishler, 17, 970 Terrace Dr., and her sister Sandy Jane Mishler, 16. The driver lost control of the auto. It appears all that saved them from serious injury was fact the car landed across the curbside storm drain when it turned turtle. — NEWS Photo

Upland School Budget Jumps 15.8 Per Cent

Salary increases, enrollment rise of 10 per cent and hikes in operations expenses accounted for a 15.8 per cent boost in the tentative budget for Upland Elementary School District which was approved by the board of trustees at its organizational meeting Wednesday afternoon, July 1.

Public hearing on the proposed budget was set for Tuesday, Aug. 4.

Continued hope for sufficient State Aid to construct a new school for the district was expressed by Supt. Cook as he reported on arrangements for a meeting with State Department of Finance representatives at the county office this week. The district seeks to be "forgiven" for 7300 sq. ft. of space in the main assembly room at Upland Scool which would make possible a new structure.

In the offing is an October financing election expected to be discussed at the Aug. 11 session of the trustees.

Due to miscues in planning, Oasis, the Chaffey District Youth Organization, will not stage a party this Saturday night, July 11. Plans are now in the making for a party the following Saturday, it was announced.

Chaffey School Boards Touch Off Fireworks In Pre-Holiday Hassle

Taking exception to Chaffey Union High School "jumping the gun" on the recent Fourth of July half-holiday Friday afternoon, July 3, the Chaffey College Board of Trustees termed the action "breach of etiquette".

And administrative source of the high school district announced the half-holiday Wednesday, July 1 before the night session of the college board that day.

Declared College President Richard S. Barr, also a member of the high school board of trustees this past fiscal year: 'I don't think it's up to the administrator or comptroller to determine holidays. I think it should be a board action."

"There should at least be negotiation at the summit with the matter brought to the board, if possible, before we find the high school has gone ahead with something of this nature," was reaction of College Board Vice-President Robin Heyer.

"We'd like to know about it before they take a step that puts the junior college on the spot," added Mr. Barr.

"We had this same sort of hassle last year," reported College President Daniel B. Milliken. "The high school personnel took Nov. 10 and 11 off and a lot of pressure was brought to bear for the college personnel to get the same. You would have thought those two days off were more important than a month's salary the way some of the personnel reacted."

This time the college board went along with the half-holiday, but Mr. Heyer requested that the thought be conveyed to the high school board that the college board thought it proper the two boards should check with each other in advance when such moves were contemplated.

Cucamonga Water Board Reduces Tax

Cucamonga County Water District board of directors Wednesday, July 1 officially approved the 1959-60 budget for district operations and reduced the tax rate two cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

Total district budget approval was for $366,956, with $113,000 to be raised by taxation earmarked for bond interest and redemption. Balance of this need will come from water sales.

Directors noted this is the second consecutive year for a tax reduction. Despite this, they reported, district growth is making possible a high level of replacement and new capital expenditures. Budgeted for this purpose is $70,000.

Robert Nesbit is president of the board, Harold B. Blatz vice president, and members are J. F. Grass Jr., Galer Royer and Eugene Billings. General manager and secretary is Norman Hixson.

College Receives $24,818 In Grants

Ontario, July 7, 1959. Chaffey College received a total of $24,818 in Federal grants during the past fiscal year, it has been announced by Dr. Daniel B. Milliken, president.

The money made available by the National Defense Education Act of 1958, included $13,606 for loans to students, in which has been added to $1512 of Memorial trust funds.

A grant of $650 provided one half of the cost to acquire a rotary calculator designed to train students in physical sciences and pre-engineering, while in the electronic technicians area, Chaffey College was allocated $2900 to help pay for constructing simplified analog and digital computors.

Receipt of a grant in the amount of $5,762 helped to strengthen the day technician training program by paying some teaching costs in the gram. The training of drafting technicians also brought $1900 in funds to the college.

Dr. Milliken reported new applications have been sub mitted requesting Federal aid to assist in equipping a new $11,940.16 foreign language laboratory, and for help in securing a glasshouse unit for the botanical sciences and to help equip pre-engineering laboratories.

The National Defense Education Act authorized over $1 billion in Federal aid to education to strengthen instructional programs in mathematics, science, modern foreign languages and technical education.

It also included loans for students who are working towards degrees in the fields previously described or in either elementary or secondary education. Students may borrow up to $1000 a year, repayable over 10 years following completion of their educations.

Red Hill Files For City Status

Red Hill had today formally filed a petition for incorporation as a city with the San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors. If carried out, Red Hill would become the county's 12th city.

However, backers of incorporation of all Cucamonga, some of whom live on Red Hill, insist any vote upon the matter would be soundly defeated and sole objective of the Red Hill incorporation move is to delay for at least two years any Cucamonga incorporation involving Red Hill.

A total of 168 names were submitted on the petition which has been referred to various offices for legal checking.

There are 912 persons livingwithin limits of the proposed city, according to the petition. Necessary for formation of a city is a 500 minimum.

Housing Shortage Grows: Profits For Vacant Lot Owner

Houses For Rental Yeild Three Times Greater Return Than Next Best Investment, Say Experts

A recent evaluation of the investment market shows that owning a home for the purposes of renting it out for income, returns the owner 15% profit (if self managed) - approximately three times the return on money invested in stocks and bonds.

And, the beauty of rental property is that anyone earning $400.00 per month or more can become a landlord and enjoy the benefits of additional income.

If you own a "lazy lot"—a vacant lot or oversize backyard that costs you money in taxes and maintenance you can put a second home on the front or back of your property; a single or multiple unit on your vacant lot and start enjoying added income right now.

Harmony Homes, leading Southern California "on-your-lot" builders, will advise with you on the possibility of your building a home for income or occupancy.

Harmony Homes, builders of over 7000 homes, with 18 offices throughout Southern California are the only on-your-lot builders: 1. offering a written money back guarantee on every home they build, 2. granted indemnity agreements by every major title company in the area, 3. with a ridgidly enforced quality control system. Harmony Homes build quality 2 and 3 bedroom homes ranging in price from $4245 to $8245 with 100% financing available depending on model and area.

Call Harmony Homes at National 2-3605 and discuss your situation with a qualified building consultant, or drop in at Harmony Homes, 719 San Antonio, Ontario, today.

Takes Loot For Lemons

Average Cost Per Acre At $977 Mark In Area

It costs $977.25 per acre to produce lemons in the Upland-Alta Loma area of San Bernardino County, according to averages compiled by Farm Advisor Richard E. Puffer and H. Fisk Phelps, extension economist, Farm Management Agricultural Extension Service, University of California.

This breaks down to $2.44 per field box, according to the sample production costs.

Growers contacted decided the costs in the data sheet would be the average costs for a well cared for typical lemon orchard in the Upland -Alta Loma area.

Costs were for the 1958 calendar year. Yields were slightly lower than last year's record crop. The average was equal to a normal crop.

The costs were based on a 10-acre owner operation, 90 trees to the acre, 30-year-old trees, furrow irrigated, yield of 400 field boxes per acre, labor $1.50 per hour or by contract.

Cultural costs — fertilizing, irrigation, pest control, frost protection, cultivation, pruning, tree removal and planting—totaled $299 or 75 cents per field box. Harvesting costs totaled $264 or 66 cents per field box.

Total cash costs — taxes on grove inside city limits, incurance, maintenance — hit $706. Non-cash overhead — depreciation, interest on investment—rounded out all costs.

Interest per acre was set at $4980, depreciation at $56.75 and interest per acre at $214.50.

The report stated it is necessary to maintain or increase yields while producing a better quality fruit and at the same time cut the cost of production since many lemon growers are caught between rising production costs and low returns.

"Many returns were lower than average last year due to thrip damage, fruit scarring and small sizes," the report said. "Insects must be controlled to maintain tree vigor and to improve fruit quality, so this cost cannot be materially reduced."

The report states the only practical means of improving yields and sizes and reduce scarring is "to maintain an annual pruning program." Pruning is the only large cost item that can be materially reduced. "Because pruning is so essential," the report concludes, "it cannot be eliminated. However, by changing over to mechanical methods of pruning, costs can be reduced approximately 40 per cent."

Cucamonga CofC Probes Zoning Plea

A Cucamonga zoning plea made to regular session of Cucamonga District Chamber of Commerce Thursday night, June 2 was referred by President Charles Smith to Sebastiano Filpi of the Cucamonga Industrial Committee. Mr. Filpi and Chamber Secretary Hollis Guthrie will investigate the plea and report back with recommendation at next month's meeting of the directors.

The plea was made by Bernard Halpern, Cucamonga rancher at 8673 E. Arrow Hwy., who promised 20 active members if the chamber would use its influence to get his area rezoned from its present A - 1 (agriculture) to M - 2 (heavy manufacturing) instead of R-3 (residential) indicated as favored by San Bernardino County Planning Commission.

Mr. Halpern's reason for desiring the M-2 zoning: The residents could do anything they wanted to in the area.

Discussion by chamber members recalled that the county had blanketed the entire Cucamonga area M-2, to adopt a zoning master plan. At that time the area in which Mr. Halpern lives was rezoned to agriculture.

Indication was that growth of 30 homes in the area would tend more toward residential re-zoning than heavy manufacutring.

Deadline Set For Cucamonga Annex

A Feb. 1 deadline has been set for annexation of Cucamonga's downtown area into the established North Town Lighting District in Cucamonga, Chairman Ralph Santolucito informed members of Cucamonga District Chamber of Commerce Thursday night, July 2.

Reason for the deadline, Mr. Santolucito said, was that if the annex is in effect at that time the Edison Co. can install light poles prior to the July 1 tax assessment.

Signatures of 25 per cent of the owners of 25 per cent of the assessed valuation in the area will have to be obtained for annexation hearing which will be called by the County Board of Supervisors.

Mr. Santolucito reported taxpayers with $5000 assessed valuation would be charged $6.50 per year for the lights in their vicinity. "The lights are going to be a terrific asset to the community," he added.

Question about who would pay for a light proposed on Archibald near Chino Water District Office and Cucamonga School, both tax exempt, caused Norman Hixson to suggest that the lighting committee ask for a contribution from them.

Eugene Billings pointed out Alta Loma Fire District pays for a street light in Alta Loma.

Secretary Hollis Guthrie reported that a master map of Cucamonga District, including Alta Loma and Etiwanda, is now being drawn up at a cost of $62.50 with a $5 charge for a blueprint. This means Cucamonga District Chamber of Commerce will soon have much - needed street maps available, Mr. Guthrie said.

No Room On Dime; Red Hill's There

Ted Vath, treasurer of Cucamonga District Chamber of Commerce and outspoken advocate of Cucamonga incorporation, declared at the Thursday night, July 2 board of directors: "Incorporation has been hanging fire too long. Let's get off the dime."

Soothed director Norman Hixson: "Don't forget, there's a little situation on Red Hill!

Cucamonga Faces Double Sessions Again Next Year

Double sessions through another school year were glumly faced this week by Cucamonga School District Board of Trustees.

Low bid received last week on the new Los Amigos School planned for Ninth and Baker exceded maximum allowable by the district by $17,340. A session with the architect Wednesday, July 1 failed to cut costs down, so all bids were rejected by the trustees.

The plan now is to hold off on re-advertising for bids for the summer until strikes are settled and costs come down.

"This means the new school will not be availablein January but more likely March, April or May," reported Supt. Ralph Bullock. "This also means continuation of double sessions."

In other business last week, the Cucamonga School District Board of Trustees re-organized, re-electing all officers. President is Mrs. Ellida Hawkins, Joe Solano is vice president and Mrs. Shirley Kirkaldy clerk. Also on the board is new member Mrs. Myrna Ferguson and Paul Makabe.

Tentative budget of $269,560, including an approximate 4½ per cent salary increase for certificated personnel, was approved and sent to the county. It will be reconsidered at Cucamonga School District's July 20 meeting. Public hearing was set for 7 p.m. Aug. 3.

Cucamonga Fire District Report Reveals Balance

Cucamonga Fire District can finance purchase of the new fire truck and add another full-time man without increase in the fire rate, retiring secretary Leslie L. (Scoop) Foster announced last week.

Unofficial closing balance for the fiscal year ending June 30 is $30,576.94, it has been announced by County Auditor Jocelyn M. Cox.

Mr. Foster said the balance at this same time last year for the same time last year for the fire district was $14,851.72.

High Building Costs Of Schools Must Be Solved

"Take the gold plate out of the school buildings."

That's what Cucamonga is faced with, apparently, if the new school is to be built at all, according to residents.

Cucamonga is faced with double sessions again, as is Upland. Proposed new administration buildings at Upland also recently were delayed because of building costs.

It is time that taxpayers and school officials alike not only worry about the cost of construction, but do something about it. The first step is to reject bids, as they have done.

The problem will be solved only if everyone digs into it to find a solution other than merely accepting the high costs."

Cucamonga is not alone. The problem is here for all school districts in California and everywhere.

Gold plate is nice. So is cake. But bread and butter come first.

CHAFFEY CURRICULUM KEEPS EYE ON TIMES

A series of new courses will be added to curriculum at Chaffey College following presentation made to the board of trustees by Olaf Snyder, dean of instruction, last week.

The courses include an evening Police Science Class, which will be instructed by trained police personnel, and day courses such as a combined algebra and trigonometry review course for engineering students and an applied psychology class on the social and personal level.

Mr. Snyder explained to the board it was his philosophy that regular college courses should fit into the curriculum in a manner that would advance students toward careers. Courses such as basket - weaving, which might fit very well into an adult program, but which have no value to the college student beyond themselves, Mr. der termed "open to question."

Mr. Snyder noted that today's college courses must be subject to change and flexible to "keep up with the times."

Comptroller William Grigsby pointed out the industrial supervision course appears to have saturated the field and is the type of course colleges can drop to be replaced by something more current.

College President Daniel B. Milliken reported he had made a study of the shift in college courses from the time when academic classes ran 80 per cent academic to 20 for vocational classes. Currently he said, the trend was just about 50-50 academic and vocational.

Chaffey, he said, was now 60 per cent academic and 40 per cent vocational, but that normally 20 per cent was lost from that 60 per cent. Overall, he said, Chaffey was just about at the 50-50 mark also.

He said Russia's sputnik had increased math and science interest but the students would still have to have a natural tendency for those subjects to stick it out.

Dr. Milliken reported there were four questions which had to be answered in regard to new courses: 1. will the students take it; do they have a need for it? 2. Does Society have a need for it? 3. Does the college have the facilities and instructors to teach it? And, 4. Is the community willing to support it?

"If there is a strong yes to the first three," Dr. Milliken declared, "then it is up to the college district to promote community support."

He added tht all the new courses were in the "yes" category.

53 Lectures Available To Meetings

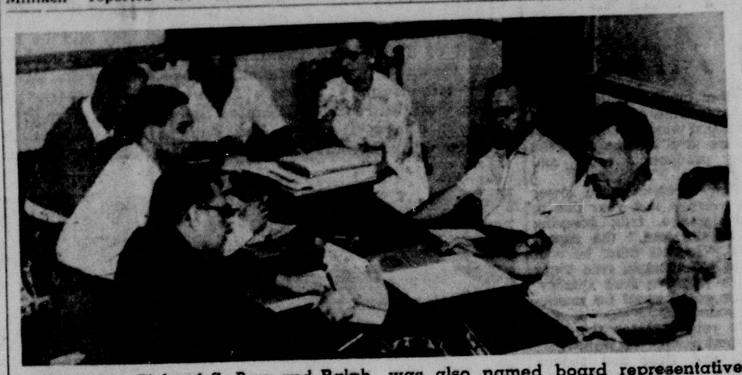

Four new speakers have recently been added to San Gorgonio Section of the American Chemical Society public service feature bureau, according to T. C. Manchester, 1660 W. Arrow Hwy.

The new speakers are Everett B. Ireland Jr. and Robert W. Sharp from the Coro-Dr. A. J. Campbell, head of the Chemistry Dept. at Harvey Mudd Engineering College, Claremont; and L. V. Wilcox, assistant director of the U. S. Salinity Laboratory, Riverside.

Mrs. Ireland speaks on SPACE SATELLITES: Mr. Sharp on ASTRONOMY: Dr. Campbell on CRYSTAL CHEMISTRY: and Mr. Wilcox on IRRIGATION.

This enables the bureau to now offer a total of 53 lectures. Mr. Machester reports, all by chemists well versed in their subjects. The lectures are offered without charge to all interested civic groups.

The complete lecture catalogue is on file at Upland Public Library. Local organizations may obtain a copy from Mr. Manchester.

Uplanders Richard S. Barr and Ralph Miller were sworn into office as members of Chaffey Union Junior College District Board of Trustees during organizational meeting Wednesday, July 1

Mr. Barr was re-named president, Robin Heyer vice-president and new member Mr. Miller secretary. Mr. Heyer was also, named board representative to the county meeting in the fall.

Citrus Crop Volume Report

Estimates on citrus crop volume by San Bernardino County Dept. of Agriculture as of June 30 stood 92 per cent of average on Navels, 76 per cent of mature Valencias and 80 per cent young Valencias, 88 per cent on mature grapefruit and 75 per cent young grapefruit, 104 per cent on the old lemon crop and 90 per cent on the new.

Agriculture Commissioner H. A. Crane reported lemon picking continued to be slow during June with 80 per cent of the crop harvested. Fruit in storage remains high, he said, although domestic shipping has increased and export shipments continue. Acreage in lemons was 5173.

per cent over estimated figure in Valencias, Mr. Crane reported. Grapefruit harvest continues with heavier picks. There are 14,346 acres in Navels, 7330 in Valencias and 1868 in grapefruit.

Mr. Crane set estimation of the grape crop at 86 per cent of average with later revision probable. "It looks very promising at the present time," Mr. Crane said. "However, due to lack of rainfall, it is doubtful whether the non-irrigated vineyards will produce as they have in the past."

The June crop report noted total precipitation for the past year was 7.61 inches compared to the normal of 16.75 inches. "This appears to be one of the driest years on record," the report states.

AREA HAS CHANGED

Locale Played Historic Role

Newcomers to the Greater Upland area probably do not realize what an historical role this locale has played in the history of California.

An outline of that historical role was compiled by Mrs. Lyman Keys, 79 E. Seventh St., in 1950 when she was California History and Landmarks chairman for Upland Woman's Club.

The following are exerpts from notes kept by Mrs. Keys:

California doesn't look now much like it did when it was first visited by the Mission fathers, or when in 1774, Commander Juan Bautista and a party of soldiers, priests and muleteers, passed through, Antonio creek, probably within limits of what is now Ontario.

Bear Gulch

In 1779, Father Font, on his way to Monterey, camped where the Sycamore Inn now stands. A marker placed there and dedicated by Ontario Parlor 251, Native Daughters of the Golden West, Oct. 12, 1932, reads: "In memory of the California pioneers—Bear Gulch, the home of the Oso. In 1779 Father Font camped here on his way to Monterey."

First mention of the name "Cucamonga" appears in a book of baptisms at Mission San Gabriel, where it records that on March 21, 1811, four natives were baptized by Father Zalvedia. Cucamonga seems to have been a mission rancho at that time.

Cucamonga Ranch

In 1843, Cucamonga Rancho was granted to Don Tiburco Tapia. He was a native-born Californian and built a fortress type house on Red Hill. Built of adobe, it could be seen for miles in the valley. He lived there until his death in 1845. He used the Rancho mostly for stock and planted a small vineyard of about 500 vines. The Rancho of 13,045 acres passed from Tapia's hands to others and in 1858 was the property of John Rains. He began improving the piace, setting out more vines and adding more stock. Mr. Rains abandoned the adobe house on the Hill and built a new home in 1858, of red brick made from Red Hill clay. The home became the social center for the area, and with the winery, shops and stage depot, Cucamonga became the most important point between San Bernardino and Los Angeles. The Rains house still stands today and although remodeled as to interior by its present owners, Mr. and Mrs. William Nesbit, the exterior is much the same as it was originally. The Native Daughters have placed a marker on the house.

Orange Plantings

The property eventually was acquired by I. W. Hellman at a sheriff's sale in 1871, and he later deeded to Cucamonga Homestead Assn. a portion of Cucamonga Rancho, with water rights and ditches of Cucamonga and San Antonio Canyon, 6213 acres in all. In 1880, 100 orange trees were planted on what is known as the R. A. Wagner ranch, a citrus development later expanded to 40 acres. A 120 acre tract was enclosed with a three foot wall of stone and cement, to keep rabbits out. Part of the crumbling walls still remain. Inside the wall, a variety of citrus was planted, including seedlings, bloods and sweets and sale of land for citrus purposes began. The tract was named Hermosa. A later citrus development was located on either side of Hellman Ave., and named Iomosa. This area continued to grow until the largest citrus plantings were north of Base Line.

Packing Center

In 1912, Pacific Electric Railway was brought through the district, and as two thirds of the citrus acreage of Cucamonga, Hermosa and Iomosa was above Base Line, a packing center nearer center of production was deemed necessary and following a contest, the name Alta Loma was chosen.

Guasti, known as South Cucamonga, was site of the first coming of the Southern Pacific in 1883. Freight and mail were hauled from Guasti station to Cucamonga settlement. The Santa Fe line was added later.

Renamed Guasti

Italian Vineyard Co. was established in 1900 by Secondo Guasti, with the planting of more than 5000 acres of grapes. South Cucamonga then was renamed Guasti, in honor of its founder.

Within the years from the original Tapia plantings, an additional quarter million vines were planted and we now have the largest acreage of grapes in the world, 30,000 acres.

Upland To Benefit From Charity Fund

The Greater Upland area has benefited from payroll deduction charitable contributions through AID-United Givers.

West End United Fund received $13,684 for services to cities included in its structure, according to President William Seineke of AID-United Givers. Upland Community Chest, now part of United Fund, received $1392 prior to its inclusion in West End United Fund.

Upland Red Cross received $4386. Cash payments to San Bernardino County charities during the 1958-59 fiscal year totaled more than $200,000. The total, representing payroll deduction charitable contributions of some 9000 San Bernardino County persons with the corporate charitable gifts of participating firms, was paid out during the 12 months ending April 30.

Other payments to charities serving this area but operating on a county-wide basis included:

American Cancer Society, San Bernardino County, $15,291; Arthritis & Rheumatism Foundation, Southern California Chapter $554; City of Hope, $6470; Crippled Children's Society, $4773; American Heart Association, San Bernardino, $67514.

Best Style It's the only car of the leading low-priced 3 that's unmistakably modern in every line. "In its price class," says POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, "a new high in daring styling."

Best Engine Every motor magazine has given Chevrolet's standard and Corvette V8's unstinted praise. As SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED puts it: ". . . surely the most wonderfully responsive engine available today at any price."

Best Ride MOTOR TREND magazine calls Chevy ". . . the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." You'll be able to tell this yourself instantly, once you take the wheel.

Best Economy No doubt about this: two Chevrolet 6's won their class in the famous Mobilgas Economy Run, got the best mileage of any full-size car, 22.38 miles per gallon—with Powerglide.

Prep Budget Gets Additional Income

Additional income amounting to $45,000 was reported as possible for the Chaffey Union High School District fiscal year budget, Supt. Allan G. Smith informed the board of trustees during organizational meeting Wednesday noon, July 1.

He reported the final average daily attendance count jumped from 4700 to 4840 students with the first two weeks of summer school added for an income increase of approximately $22,000. An approximately $18,000 boost could come from Equalization funds, Supt. Smith said.

"We will have to determine how that money should go into the budget," Supt Smith told the trustees.

In other business, the board adopted bylaws prepared by Supt. Smith pertaining to the board itself. The bylaws lay down policy and set-up of the board and establishes 7 p.m. on the first Monday of each month as regular board meeting.

The trustees were presented bylaws covering other phases of the high school district, but Supt. Smith said these were for study and revision and could be adopted over a period of time.

"We've operated for more than 40 years without the bylaws," Supt. Smith noted, "so they are nothing we should jump into. However, what we have as written policy makes problems in that area minute."

Public hearing on the high school district budget was set for regular board meeting at 7 p.m. Aug. 3.

An appropriate letter of appreciation was authorized to Richard S. Barr, retired prep board member and now president of the Chaffey College board, for his years of service.

2 Buildings Accepted On New Campus

Acceptance of the first two structures completed on Chaffey College's new Alta Loma campus was enthusiastically approved by the board of trustees Wednesday, July 1.

They are the aeronautics and electronics building.

Said Board President Richard S. Barr: "I thought the workmanship was real good."

Added College President Daniel B. Milliken: "The architects can be proud."

The other two buildings in the unit are expected to be completed in September.

Boys Club of Upland Sets Events Calendar

Ten dances, one beach trip, one mountain outing during snow season and a Dodger baseball game head list of activities on the 1959-60 calendar for Boys Club of Upland.

Co-directors Jack Fletcher and Delfino Segovia met Thursday night, July 2 with a committee from the Boys Club board of directors, composed of President Merrill Z. Conn, Treasurer Will R. Mason, Directors Warner B. Howell and Joel R. Baugh, when the annual calendar of major activities were approved and budgeted.

First dance of the fiscal year will be held the last week in July, with the beach party to highlight the month of August for Boys Clubbers. In September, attendance at a Dodger game will repeat the highly successful feature of last fall. A mountain snow party is slated for February with dances to be held every month when no other major activity is planned.

In addition to the annual calendar, directors of the club program prepare monthly schedules of activities, including monthly swim parties during the nine month school year. The swim parties are held at the Pomona YMCA's indoor, heated pool, with each boy paying a 25 cent admission fee.

Other routine activities offered at the Boys Club, which has club rooms in Los Olivos Community Building as provided by Upland Housing Authority board of directors,include sports, crafts and films. At the club rooms games available include table tennis, billiards, boxing, and outdoor sports. Crafts provided are leathercraft, ceramics, oil painting, plastic weaving, basket weaving, copper craft and wood working. Softball and basketball are popular sports with the Boys Clubbers, who field teams in area leagues, and weight lifting is offered at Upland-Ontario YMCA. Television, books and magazines are also provided in the club rooms.

Effective Monday, July 6, the Boys Club is operating on a new summer schedule of hours, as follows:

Mondays, 6 - 8:30 p.m.; Tuesdays, 6:30 - 8:30 p.m.; Wednesdays, 6:30 - 8:30 p.m.; Thursdays, 6:30 - 8:30 p.m.; Fridays, 6-8:30 p.m., and Saturdays, 6 - 8 p.m.

These hours are later than the winter schedule to avoid summer heat of late afternoon hours. Mr. Segovia is director in charge on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays, with Mr. Fletcher directing activities Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Black wound up with 15 points and is currently leading the cage circuit with a total of 70 points for four games. Reed Hansen had 7 for runner-up laurels.

Chaffey's rebounding and the loss of Upland's Paul Wood via the foul route cost the Highlanders an upset win. Wood, Jim Weldon, and Dave Thompson all played rugged defense for the Highlanders

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Robertson

Cucamonga Girl Wed In Ontario Church Rites

Miss Shirley Ann Stipe became the bride of Dennis Curry Robertson in First Lutheran Church, Ontario, the night of June 27 before 200 guests. The Rev. R. C. Anderson performed the ceremony.

The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ray Stipe of 9797 Eighth St., Cucamonga. The groom is son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Robertson of San Diego.

The couple took a brief wedding trip down the coast and will live at 4067 38th St., San Diego. Mr. Robertson is working at equipment rentals and with the Old Globe Shakespeare Theatre. Next spring he plans to continue studies at San Francisco State where his major will be music, drama and literature and also will attend the Sears-Whiteside School of Drama.

Reception was held in reception hall of the church which was decorated by pink and white roses, as was the cake.

The bride's wedding gown was of Botique Bridal taffeta. The moulded torso bodice was styled with long fitted sleeves and a modified Sabrina neckline with elaborate appliques of re-embroidered Alencon lace richly studded with seed pearls.The very bouffant skirt, repeating the lovely appliques, fell into a graceful Chapel train.

She wore her red hair full length, falling below her waiste. It was covered by a fingertip veil of illusion net with embroidered scallops along the edges. The rhinestone and seed pearl tiara of three hearts was a handmade heirloom from the bridegroom's family, chosen as the "borrowed" apparel.

For something old, she carried a white Bible belonging to her grandmother, covered by a white orchid and stephanotis falling the length of her dress on purple streamers. A blue handkerchief, which her mother had carried upon being wed, was tucked inside the Bible.

The bride's mother wore pink embroidered linen sheath with pink accessories.

The bride's mother wore pink embroidered linen sheath with pink accessories. The groom's mother wore brocaded sheath suit with lavender accessories. Both wore corsages of lavender carnations.

For the wedding trip, the bride wore full dance dress of green chiffon with white accessories.

Maid of Honor was Miss Sandra Fowler of San Bernardino. Best man was Robert Kent of Downey, roommate of the groom. Flower Girl was Vicki Leman of Upland, cousin of the bride. She wore a princess pink taffeta dress with purple design.

The bride is a graduate of Chaffey High School, where she was outstanding speaker and Latin student, a life member of CSF and won the Bank of America Award in social studies, and attended University of Redlands, where she was recording secretary of Beta Lambda Mu Sorority and vice president of Theta Alpha Phi, national drama fraternity. She will graduate in February as an education major.

Pomona Savings Declares Firm's Largest Dividend

A dividend totalling $,200,000, was declared by the board of directors of Pomona First Federal Savings and Loan Association, for the six months period ending June 30. This dividend, representing a sharing of the association's earnings by its approximately 22,500 members at the current annual rate of 4 per cent, is the largest in its history, states President Paul D. Walker.

At the same time the board declared its intention to pay dividends for the next quarter, on Sept. 30, 1959 at the anticipated rate of 4 per cent per annum.

Consistent growth at each of Pomona First Federal's three offices, plus the ability of the association to set aside an increased amount in reserves, has made possible this record - breaking dividend payment, Walker states.

WHAT IS AN ELECTROSTATIC PRECIPITATOR?

ANSWER: the newest, most effective device to control smoke.

Here is how it works: Smoke is actually a cloud of tiny, solid particles—like dust. An electrostatic precipitator works like a dust catcher, trapping the particles between the furnace and its smokestack.

As the particles enter the precipitator, an electric current gives them a negative charge. Then—just as a piece of metal is attracted to a magnet—the negative-charged particles are attracted to positive-charged steel plates, where they stick until they are automatically shaken down into bins every few seconds.

Giant precipitators are installed on all nine of our Kaiser Steel open-hearth furnaces and on our three new oxygen steelmaking furnaces. These precipitators represent a major part of the $14,000,000 Kaiser Steel has spent on air pollution control since 1942. They are a product of years of research by our special Air Control and Research Department and by Kaiser Engineers working with independent air control specialists.

This investment is further evidence of a longstanding policy at Kaiser Steel: we want clean air just as sincerely—just as urgently—as any group in our community. It is impossible to produce steel without making smoke, and we do not claim that we have completely eliminated smoke from our plant. We do say, however, that our continuous air purification program has already gone a long way towards the control of the smoke involved in steelmaking. We know of no steel mill in the country that has done a better overall job.

In the interest of our neighbors . . . and to help assure that agriculture and industry will prosper in San Bernardino Valley . . . we will continue our research to find practical ways to keep air pollution from our plant at a minimum.

KAISER STEEL is now operating the major facilities in its 2½ year, $214,000,000 expansion—the largest industrial plant expansion in the history of the West. To the West in general, this doubling of our capacity means more steel to grow on. For our neighbors in San Bernardino Valley it means more jobs . . . more civic and educational improvements from Kaiser Steel tax dollars . . . more opportunity for this community to prosper.

KAISER STEEL

built to serve the growing West

Red Hill Petitions Circulating

Petitions are being circulated on Red Hill seeking signatures of 25 per cent of the property owners in the area who represent 25 percent of the assessed valuation.

Purpose: To clear through the county for a public hearing on proposed incorporation of Red Hill as a city.

Since an election on incorporation is expected to be defeated by backers of the move, objective is actually a two-year period in which Red Hill could not be included in Cucamonga incorporation moves.

However, annexation would still remain a possibility.

Too High Even For Flagpole!

Chaffey College President Daniel B. Milliken didn't take long to decide that a 70 ft. flagpole was too high for the new Alta Loma campus — as soon as he was told the bill would be $3200.

"I told them," Dr. Milliken informed the college board of trustees last week, "forget it."

Prices on flagpoles 45, 50 and 55 ft. will now be submitted to the district, Dr. Milliken said.

Chaffey College Teacher Named To Honor Post

A letter which honored a Chaffey College teacher was read before the Wednesday, July 1 meeting of the board of trustees.

It announced that Ralph Newton had been elected district representative for the Southern Section of the Business Education Assn.

Reported College President Daniel B. Milliken to the board: "We have numerous letters like this. This represents an evaluation of the school through evaluation of one of our personnel." He added that other personnel on the Chaffey College campus, such as Louis Gentile, had received many such honors and recognition.
